

ROTARY DISTRICT 5360

Peace Photo Contest

www.rotarianpeacephoto.org

Snap a picture and you could be a winner.

- Leah Dawonik prize = $750
- 2nd prize = $500
- 3rd prize = $250

Win a Camera

The Nikon D3000 donated by George H. Brookman, C.E.O. West Canadian will be awarded for the most innovative photo.

Nikon's latest compact DSLR, the D3000, is targeted at both beginners and experienced compact users, has a 10.2 mega pixel CCD sensor, a wide angle lens (18-55mm), a large LCD screen (3 inch), and is valued at $599.00.

What type of photo ???

- Pictures of your idea of peace showing “a passion for the advancement of international understanding, good will, and peace among mankind, as well as, photographic excellence”

Rotaract Marie Robertson - U of L Rotaract
2008/09 Prize winner

"San Salvador War Memorial"

Thousands were lost to civil war. Its construction, and the fact that people place flowers of remembrance on it, shows that El Salvador is dedicated to a new and peaceful way of life.

Rotarian Sheran Carter
Rotary Club of Pincher Creek
2007/08 Prize Winner

"Hands Across the Border"

Waterton-Glacier Peace Park Assembly 2005

www.rotarianpeacephoto.org

Rotaract Kristina Larkin
U of L Rotaract
2008/09

"Walk together"

Rotary Youth Exchange students from different countries who became best friends. Peace is built on good international relationships and Youth Exchange is amazing way to initiate that.

General Rules

- Deadline of Apr 30, 2010
- May submit up to three photographs
- Picture quality should be 1-5 megabits
- Submit in JPEG format
- The rules are listed on the web site.

Andrea Thain Liptak

First Place 2009

These beautiful, wonderful boys in Rwanda were helping set up for a concert. How can you not see peace and hope in these eyes. Plus I love that one of them is wearing a hockey shirt

How to Enter

1. Take a picture
2. Describe why the picture makes you think of peace
3. Fill out an entry form
www.rotarianpeacephoto.org
4. Attend the Rotary District 5360 Conference in Banff, Alberta on May 28, 2010 to claim your prize

Do you get the picture?

1. Spread the word to your club
2. Peace is everybody's business
3. It is easy and fun to be involved
4. Imagine what you would you do with:
 1. a fine new camera or
 2. the cash Prize

Well then get snapping!
The End